"Service, Pride, Integrity"

WHAT: Car burglaries

WHERE: San Luis Obispo, various locations

WHEN: Late evening hours of Thursday, January 19, into early morning hours of Friday, January 20, 2012.

The San Luis Obispo Police Department received reports of seven car burglaries yesterday (January 20, 2012), all of which occurred during the previous night. Four of the burglaries occurred in the Oceanaire area, one on Tank Farm Road, and two in the Foothill/Patricia area. In each case, valuable items were left in plain view including:

- Two purses
- Two wallets
- Camera bag
- Backpack
- Video Security System
- Duffel bag

In five of the burglaries, the suspect(s) used an unknown object to smash the window closest to the visible property. In one case, a convertible top was cut with a knife, and in the last case the vehicle was left unlocked.

At this time we do not have any significant leads or witnesses to the crimes. Anyone with any information about these burglaries is encouraged to contact the SLOPD.

The San Luis Obispo Police Department would like to take this opportunity to remind residents and visitors to always secure valuables out of sight, always lock your vehicle, and report suspicious activity to the Police Department right away.

Any further questions should be referred to the Press Information Officer. Anonymous information may be referred to Crime Stoppers @ (805) 549-STOP
