WHAT: Arrest of Burglary Suspect
Robert Burns, 24 of San Luis Obispo

WHERE: 11670 Apt A Los Osos Valley Road, SLO

WHEN: 10/22/09 at 1200

The San Luis Obispo Police Department received a call of a burglary in progress at 1522 Oceanaire. Officers responded as the suspect fled the residence. Prior to the suspect fleeing the victim was able to get several pieces of property back from the suspect. The victim was not injured.

Officers began a search of the area and located a person matching the description given of the suspect. That person fled into the apartment complex located at Los Osos Valley and Madonna Roads. Officers set up a perimeter and began a search of the apartment complex. Through the search it was discovered that the suspects bicycle was located inside apartment 11670 #A. Officers contacted the resident and conducted a search of that apartment. The suspect was located hiding in the attic area. As officer attempted to apprehend the suspect he kicked out a roof vent and climbed out onto the roof. Officers were able to contain the suspect on the roof and he was taken into custody without incident. The suspect was identified as Robert Burns, 24 of San Luis Obispo.

Burns was booked into San Luis Obispo County Jail for charges of 459 and 496 PC. Investigators believe Burns may be responsible for other burglaries in the area because of additional items found during the investigation.
